

RESPITE COALITION RESOURCE LIST

Nonprofit

Alzheimer's Association

<https://www.alz.org/sc?set=1>

Alzheimer's Association provides education and support to those facing Alzheimer's and other dementias throughout South Carolina, including those living with the disease, caregivers, health care professionals and families.

Anderson Interfaith Ministries

<https://www.aimcharity.org/housing-program>

Anderson Interfaith Ministries Housing Program in Anderson, SC assists low-income homeowners to remain in their homes by providing ramps and other necessary repairs that threaten the health and safety of these families.

Leeza's Care Connection

<https://leezascareconnection.org/south-carolina-programs>

Leeza's Care Connection focuses on helping you learn ways to cope and manage your role as a family caregiver. They want to your hand and help you find answers on the difficult path you are walking now. They are located in Columbia, SC.

The Ark of Summerville

<https://thearkofsc.org/>

The Ark provides hope and relief to families living with Alzheimer's Disease or Related Dementias through support services such as respite care, support groups, education, caregiver consultations, resource referrals, and community development. They are located in Summerville, SC.

Golden Corner Respite Care Program

<https://www.gcrespite.com/>

Golden Corner Respite Care provides respite caregivers for persons with early to mid-stage Alzheimer's or related dementia. The person with dementia receives respite care while engaging in social, physical, intellectual, and spiritual activities in a safe and loving environment.

Greenville Area Parkinson's Society

<https://www.gapsonline.org/>

The Greenville Area Parkinson Society is a local non-profit organization in the Upstate of South Carolina that offers support, education, and advocacy to people living with Parkinson's Disease, their care partners, spouses, and families.

Respite Care Charleston

<https://respitecarecharleston.org/>

Respite Care Charleston is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing support to caregivers and those living with Alzheimer's or other forms of dementia. Our priority is to bring MORE. GOOD. DAYS.™ to families dealing with one of life's greatest challenges.

Senior Resources

<https://www.seniorresourcesinc.org/>

Senior Resources is a non-profit organization that coordinates services, provides resources, and encourages the personal choices that allow Midlands' area senior citizens to remain independent.

State Agency

Alzheimer's Resource Coordination Center

<https://aging.sc.gov/programs-initiatives/alzheimers-resource-coordination-center-arcc>

The Center's goal is to serve as a statewide focal point for coordination, service development, information, and education to assist persons with Alzheimer's disease and related dementias (ADRD) and their families.

Area Agency on Aging

<https://www.getcaresc.com/about/area-agencies-aging>

The AAA provides information and assistance to older adults, persons with disabilities, and caregivers. The AAA also operates the Regional Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program, the Regional Family Caregivers Program, and the I-CARE program. There are 10 regional locations throughout South Carolina.

South Carolina Healthy Connections

<https://www.scdhhs.gov/>

The South Carolina Medicaid program, called Healthy Connections, is administered by the South Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (SCDHHS) and pays medical bills with state and federal tax money.

South Carolina Department of Disabilities and Special Needs

<https://ddsn.sc.gov/>

SCDDSN is the state agency that plans develops, oversees, and funds services for South Carolinians with severe, lifelong disabilities of intellectual disability, autism, traumatic brain injury, and spinal cord injury and conditions related to each of these four disabilities.

South Carolina Department on Aging

<https://aging.sc.gov/>

The SCDOA works with a network of regional and local organizations to develop and manage services that help seniors remain independent in their homes and in their communities.